Differences between Conflict and HIB

Types of Bullying Behavior

- Verbal: Includes taunting, name calling, malicious teasing or making threats.
- Psychological: Includes spreading rumors, purposefully excluding, breaking up friendships.
- Physical: Includes hitting, punching, shoving, spitting or taking personal belongings.
- Cyberbullying: Includes digital technologies to harm others.

Possible Warning Signs

Children who are being bullied might start to:

- Come home with damaged or missing belongings
- Have unexplained injuries
- Complain frequently of feeling sick or try to hurt themselves
- Lose interest in visiting or talking with friends
- Lose interest in school work or begin to do poorly in school
- Suddenly have fewer friends
- Appear sad, moody, angry, anxious or when they come home
- Talk about suicide or “giving up”

If your child is showing any of these warning signs, you should talk to them to find out the cause and then talk to your child’s teacher, school counselor, or principal.
