Summer Reading Challenge 2018
Incoming 7th Graders

Reading Faces in Many Places!

“Oh, the places you’ll go!”-Dr. Seuss

This summer you are being encouraged to read
3 or more books of your choice in any genre.

Your reading task is to enjoy your summer reading books in places that are strange, humorous, wacky, or unusual.

Here are the challenge guidelines:

1) Have someone take a picture of you reading a book in a strange, humorous, wacky, or unusual place this summer (2018).

Ex: Reading on a Ferris wheel, sailboat, or even standing in front of the Eiffel Tower!

2) DO NOT do anything dangerous or inappropriate.

3) Using any editing program (such as Photoshop) is prohibited.

4) Print out your photo 4”x6” and bring it to your new ELA class the first week of school.
Photos will be posted in the middle school hallway for Back to School Night.

5) Be prepared to give a brief (1-2) minute Book Talk on one of your books and elaborate on your strange, humorous, wacky, or unusual photo! It is recommended that you take notes as you read, so you can recall your book for your Book Talk.
